FRENCH IMMIGRATION.

A Good Suggestion-A Chance for Our Commissioners of immigration to Do Semuthing for the State, from the Little Rock Gazette. A correspondent below call the attention of fand-owners to the fact that there will soon set in from the French provinces of Alsace and Lorraine a considerable emigration to the United States, and suggests that some means be used to secure for Arkansas at least a portion of these new-com-ers. Their value as citizens cannot be over-estimated, and the suggestion should not be allowed to pass unheeded. Something might be done by sending one or more delegates to the convention of planters and landowners which is to meet in Memphis on the first and second days of the incoming month.
